THE MUTUAL FUND DIRECTORS FORUM CONGRATULATES ITS CHAIR JAMESON BAXTER ON HER LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

Washington, D.C. (April 3, 2017) – The Mutual Fund Directors Forum (www.mfdf.org), the independent membership organization for fund independent directors, congratulates Jameson A. Baxter on the Fund Directions Lifetime Achievement Award she received at the 24th annual Mutual Fund Industry Awards last week in New York.

Ms. Baxter is the Independent Chair of the Putnam Funds and Chair of the Board of the Mutual Fund Directors Forum.

“I have had the privilege of working alongside Jamie since 2006 and have seen firsthand her dedication to the fund industry, her peers, and the role of effective independent mutual fund governance,” said Susan Ferris Wyderko, President and CEO of the Mutual Fund Directors Forum. “I can think of no one more deserving for this honor, and we could not be more pleased to have someone of this caliber chairing our organization.”

Ms. Baxter has been a member of the Forum’s Board since 2005 and the Chair since 2010. During her tenure, the Forum has further established itself as the leading voice for independent directors of U.S. mutual funds in the key policy issues shaping the industry for fund companies and their shareholders. The Forum has also built a diverse array of educational programs and networking events, taking place across the country to address issues of note for directors of all experience levels.
